Alcohol Law Education and Regulatory Training

Montgomery County Department of Liquor Control Licensure,
Regulation and Education

Who should attend

ALERT is designed to educate Montgomery County servers, sellers, management and owners on alcohol beverage regulatory compliance. Learn how to develop responsible alcohol policies, review issues identified by enforcement agencies and have an opportunity to meet for networking among peers and county officials. ALERT is a FREE class offered twice a month. Licensees and staff are encouraged to sign up and frequently take this free training.

ALERT Seminar 10 AM - 1 PM

Second and fourth Monday of every month.
If a holiday falls on a Monday, ALERT class will be held Tuesday
201 Edison Park Drive, Gaithersburg, MD 20878
For more information on ALERT, please visit

Maryland State Certified Alcoholic Awareness Training

Maryland Certified Alcoholic Awareness Requirement

- On and Off premise licensed businesses in Montgomery County are required by state law to have a certified person employed in a supervisory capacity present during the hours in which alcohol may be sold.
- Certification must be renewed every four years to remain current.
- Failure to have a certified representative may result in license renewal delays, as well as, fines, suspensions or even revocation of your retail alcohol beverage license.

To search for state certified Alcohol Awareness trainers, please visit www.montgomerycountymd.gov/dlc/alert

ALERT is also offered in Spanish for FREE throughout the year. For more information, call 240-777-1999.

Self-Distribution

The State of Maryland allows small wineries, breweries and distilleries to self-distribute in Montgomery County and throughout the state of Maryland. The manufacturer must be licensed to self-distribute through the Maryland Comptroller's Office. Licensed businesses can buy product directly from these manufacturers.

Wine

State law allows licensed establishments to purchase wine directly from an in-state Maryland Winery that holds a class 6 limited wine wholesale license and out of state wineries that hold a non-resident winery permit.

Microbrews

State law allows licensed establishments to purchase microbrews directly from an in-state Maryland Brewery that holds the proper class 7 limited beer wholesale license and out of state breweries who hold a non-resident brewery permit.

Spirits

State law allows licensed establishments to purchase spirits directly from an in-state Maryland distillery that holds a class 8 liquor wholesalers license and out of state distilleries with a non-resident distillery permit.

Promoter Guidelines

- Keep in mind that your license will be charged for any offenses that occur at your establishment even if a promoter is put in charge. Protect yourself by developing responsible policies for your staff and guests. Hire only responsible promoters who have strong policies in place.
- Promoters can make or break your establishment. Before hiring a promoter consider the risks involved. Ask for a promoter's references and call them. Look up past events on social media.
- Licensees will be held responsible of anything that occurs on the licensed premises.

When in doubt about a promotion, local or state law, call the Department of Liquor Control's Outreach Office at 240-777-1904 or e-mail dlc@montgomerycountymd.gov

Sales to Intoxicated Individuals

Responsible Policies:

- Refuse service to those who are intoxicated
- Avoid promotions that encourage over consumption
- Have a written policy listing step by step instructions on what a server should do if a patron becomes intoxicated
- Train staff
- Encourage food sales and nonalcoholic drinks. Place a glass of water down, without asking, to accompany the first alcoholic drink
- Publicize alcohol policies in visible locations
- Do not allow staff to consume alcohol while working

Free training and point of sale materials are available through the DLC Community Outreach Office. Contact us at 240-777-1999 dlc@montgomerycountymd.gov or visit www.montgomerycountymd.gov/dlc
